UNU-CRIS Connecting Ideas Blog

Submission Guidelines

- The word count of a blog post should ideally be between 600-1200 words. UNU-CRIS reserves the right to allow the limits to be exceeded, depending on the nature of the piece.

- All blogs are to be written in consistent British English. Translations of posts originally written in another language are accepted for consideration.

- The blog post must include a 2-3 sentence overview of the post, such as those found here.

- All referencing is to be done through in-text hyperlinks.

- Tables, schemes, diagrams and figures may be incorporated into the text. The visualisation of key information is encouraged. Please attach all images when submitting your blog.

- Subheadings should be included in the text.

- The authors should attach a recent photo and a link to a biography/profile/social media account.
